

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:52; sunset, 6:05.

Mrs. Wm. Schultz, 433 N. State, fought masher with hatpin. He tried to put chloroform rag over her nose.

Fire did $60,000 damage to Huddleston Marsh Lumber Co., 2256 Lumber av.

Chief Healey attacked parole system in address to legislative anti-crime com'n, La Salle hotel. Says leniency is shown to same boys too many times.

Plans for 16-story jail for present jail site, to cost $1,250,000, submitted to county board by Architect Eric Hall. Voters must approve new bond issue before new jail is built.

Miss Fannie Belle Page, Birchwood, only girl to take up engineering at Northwestern university, eloped with Walter Fox, Idaho rancher.

John Klein, 2978 Wabash av., arrested on charge of stealing $64 from bakeshop of his employer, Mrs. Jos. Morek, 439 E. 44th.

Forest preserve com'rs fixed salaries of Peter Ellert, sec'y, and Oscar F. Mayer, treasurer, at $2,500 each.

Jas. Franche, "Duffy the Goat," and two others held on suspicion, released.

Thieves sawed through hinges and ruined combination of safe of Harvard theater, 6313 Harvard av., but failed to get it open.

Mrs. Julius Altmar, 1336 Kenilworth av., bruised and cut when autos collided.

Warrants out for John McDonough, saloonkeeper, 1030 N. Franklin. J. B. Healey, 675 N. Clark, says he was beaten in McDonough's saloon Sunday after drinking and playing cards.

John Saber found dead in basement of home, 1531 S. Menard. Had fractured skull.

Leaders of Woodlawn fraternal orders plan forming regiment to offer Gov. Dunne as part of I. N. G.

Ten-cent store fire, 4441 Broadway, caused $5,000 damage to building owned by J. H. Waldron. Believed incendiary.

Illinois club, 113 S. Ashland, sued for $25,000 by Emile DeRocat, dancing teacher, who charges club broke contract.

August Larson decided he would quit teaming business today and join army. Fell from wagon yesterday. Killed.

Federal agents watching movements of women of known immorality who have made trips between Chicago and Gary. Agents trying to find out if expenses are paid in violation of Mann act.

Jas. Pease, one of best known old-time Republican leaders, critically ill at St. Luke's hospital.

Judge Baldwin issued temporary injunction against alleged resort at 113 W. Ontario. Defendants are Miss Angelina Frank, as owner of record; W. H. Pusbeck, 1336 Morse av., as agent; Kitty Altenhoff, as keeper.

Geo. Burchard, 5601 Lowe av., auto truck driver, arrested on complaint of Mrs. Evangeline Hatley, 5526 S. Michigan av., that he tried to flirt with her.

Dorothy Rhode, 5, 2920 N. Seeley av., dead. Dress caught fire in gas heater.

John Sypaulus, 1110 N. Menard, put pictures of wife and children on chairs before him, then turned on gas and died. Ill health.

"If people of Russia, Germany and Austria had as much say in the government as people of the United States there would be no European war," N. L. Piotrowski said in Eckhart Park speech.

Mrs. Constantine Frontus, 1407 S. Sangamon, rushed to Maxwell station with cut lips, two teeth out and part of clothing burned away. Said husband knocked her down, poured kerosene on her and set fire to her. Husband arrested.